A whos who of those who have contributed to the cause

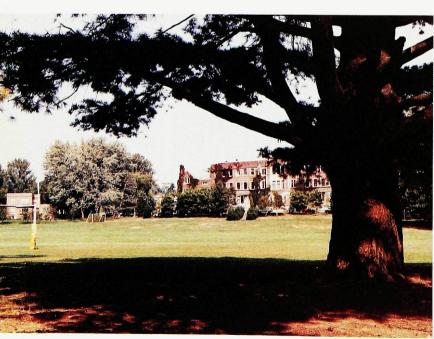

It was Saturday, September 10, 1983 and summer was still with us. On a hot and humid day, dressed in formal, we all made our way down the autoroute. Some had travelled a few miles, some a few thousand. All had come to join in, to take a chance . . . to take a part and be a part.

FROM THE HEAD'S DIARY

Writing this brief note has been made difficult because one simply does not know where to start. Becoming involved is a trademark of BCS and we are indeed fortunate that so many people - students and staff - give so willingly of their time and talents to make the place "go." Indeed, sometimes the pace becomes a trifle hectic, and we (the staff) have spent, and are spending, a considerable amount of time in trying to devise ways and means of streamlining the program so that students do not over extend themselves. And how fortunate we are to be faced with a "problem" of this kind! In many schools, and in society at large, involvement seems to be the exception to the norm. Not at BCS. We are a small community, and as such cannot afford the luxury, if that is what it is, of compartmentalization. Our athletes sing in the choir and perform in major drama productions. Our musicians and debators, our painters and our writers represent the School on a variety of teams. Our top academics - and we have some very good people indeed - cannot bury themselves in their books to the exclusion of the world around them. The end result? Fatigue certainly. Over involvement - sometimes. A hectic pace - definitely. But overiding all this, for the majority who take what BCS has to offer and give back of themselves ten times over, the result is an education as opposed to schooling. And basic to that education is the discovery of the joy of participation, and the truth of the adage. You get what you give - not just here at BCS, but in whatever field of endeavour we may find ourselves.

Many thanks to you all, students, and staff, for all you have done and are continuing to do, to make the joy of involvement a real part of Bishop's College School.

WORK AND PLAY

in,
There is work I must now begin.
As the time swiftly flies away,

We all work for a momen of play.

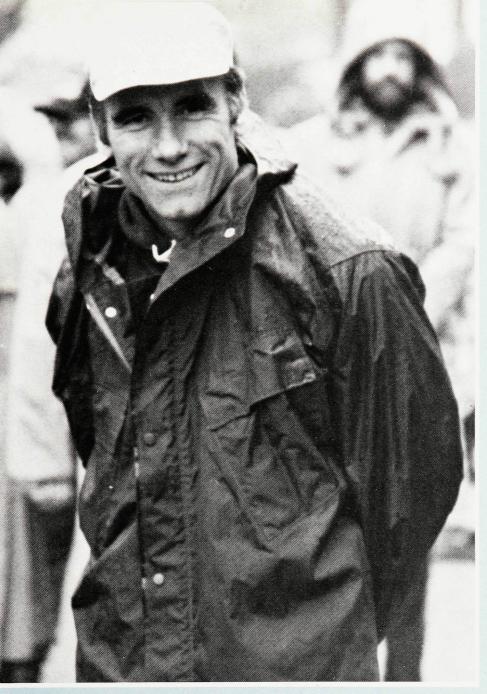

Now the night is young And we work until all is done.

Then sleepy minds soa away

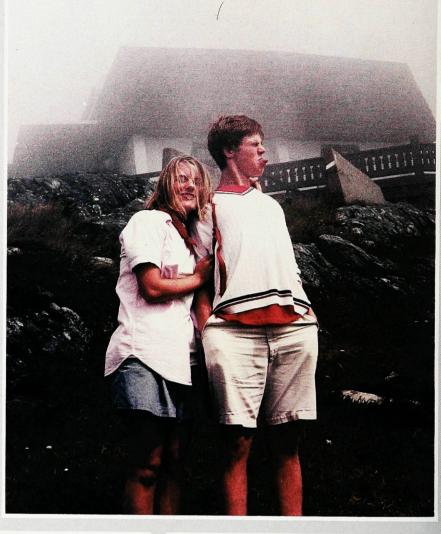

As we lay our heads down to end the long day.

A SONG OF THE SCHOOL

The soccer players boot the ball for the kickoff of the game, The boy loosens his tie at the end-of-classes bell,

The music teacher smacks his baton on the black iron stand

The Cadet Major bellows orders at form-up in the Quad on a bleary Monday afternoon,

The secretary clicks and clatters on her typewriter, forming the letter's reply,

The prefect signs off the list of 300 names at roll call,

The boy arches his body in the air as he flips a hook shot at the basket,

The roommates languidly clean up their room before Inspection.

The nurse talks on the telephone to the ordering firm,

The patient ices his unbandaged knee and winces with stabs of pain,

The runners tensely await the gun, crouched in their blocks,

The matron folds the starched crisp sheets while the minute hand creeps by.

The girl turns and nods with concentration at her long mirror image.

The chaplain breaks the bread and pours the wine at the Eucharist,

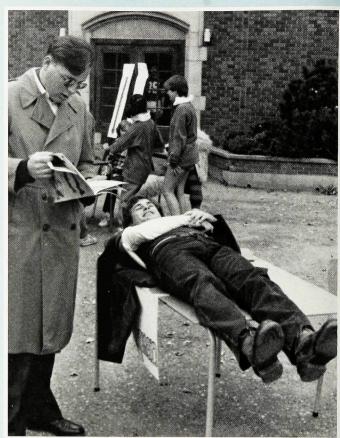

The boy listens to his favorite brand of music, mouthing the words.

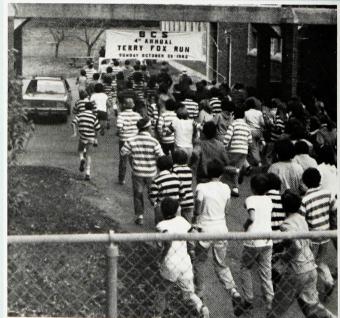

The cook ladels out the meal to the shuffling line of hungry students.

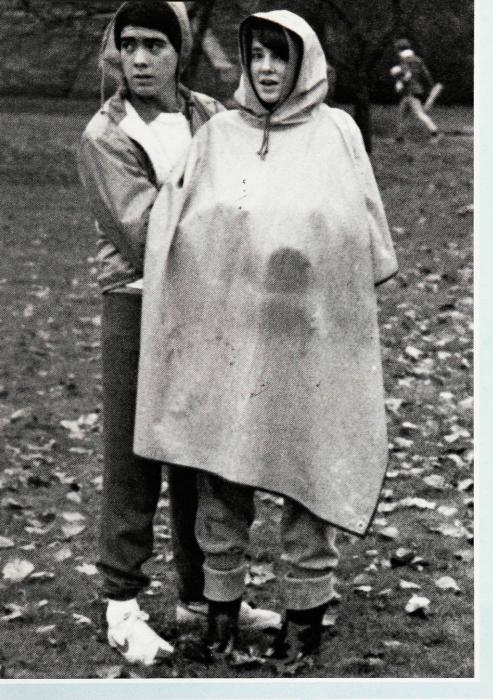

The school gathers to salute the Old Boys who died in the last war,

The girl stretches while the alarm clock rattles on . . .

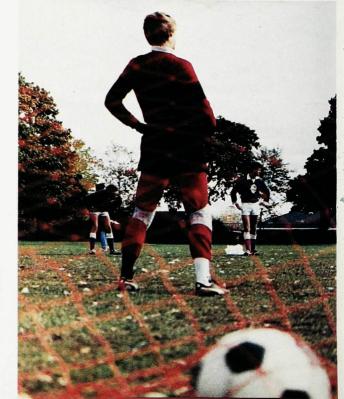

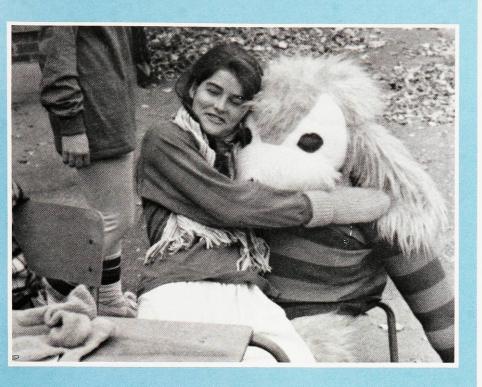

In rain or shine we still go on, Life is like a round of a song. We live in a vicious circle of action Striving for fulfillment and satisfaction We work and play in love and hate Yet in the end we're left to fate Like whether it'll rain or shine.

OUR INDIVIDUALITY

In the fast pace of our own world it is easy to be swept away in the steady current of our life-style. Recognition is not easily gained in our society of individuals. We all build on our individuality striving to be unique. In our uniform and regulated, exciting, yet chaotic schedule, we venture out into the world of experimentation. We strive to be an individual each in our own way.

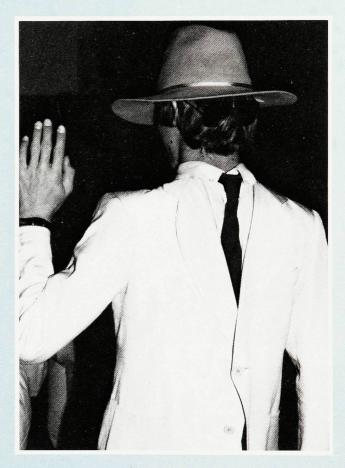

If you give a little, you never know, You may just get a whole lot back. Participate, give a smile, Say Hello, while walking down the aisle Make them realize you exist Before you're gone and never missed. So let's be smart and take a part!!

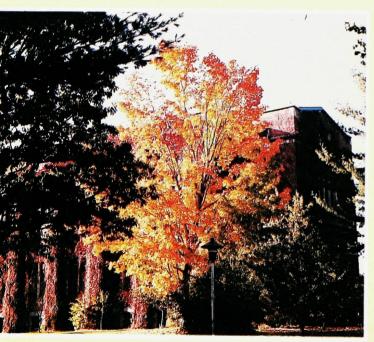

FAMILIAR FACES

SOLITUDE

A swirling world in its own, making your few moments of solitude few and far between but ever so valuable. The solitude of concentration while working, running, playing - ALONE yet amongst others. The School; quiet and calm. The Chapel; a place for prayer, alone and together, personal privacy is contained only within your thoughts. The Dining Hall; one of the main social milieus of BCS - A world within another world. Solitude is a part of every activity in our lives. It is within ourselves, our thoughts, and our actions.

WORK, WORK, WORK!

It's Always Got to Get Done

A low murmur was coming from the carpet of nervous students rushing through their last minute homework. Some, having finished already, were talking casually about their exciting (or boring) summers. Others, less lucky ones, were scribbling madly through torn duo-tangs.

Suddenly, the school bell rang, as if it were laughing at those who hadn't finished. One girl screamed and quickened her pace of scribbling as everyone got up to go to their next class.

Soon enough the girl was alone and still scribbling helplessly. She kept nervously glancing at the clock, and, when she saw there was only a minute before the second bell, she leaned back against the iron railing in resignation. It was cool and refreshed her momentarily but the thought of her unfinished work lingered in her mind. Finally giving up, she stacked up her messy books and left.

ROSS

It's 10:30 on a very slow Saturday night. The coffee house is deserted, center hall abandoned . . . come on guys, where's the action?! Way up on third floor. In a dimly lit common room with Italian furniture and a colour T.V., beneath the words "Per Aspera Virtus" lie countless bodies struggling to get a glimpse of the hockey game. In one of the darker corners lie . . . The phone is tied up by anxious lovers, the blackboard is occupied by aspiring artists.

The Ross house common room is not the Sherbrooke zoo nor is it the Lennoxville looney-bin. Rather, it is home to the exuberant students of BCS. The Ross house liveliness extends from the confines of these four walls though. It can be seen all over the school and cannot be ignored. In the shadow of 'Freaks 83' looms the pride of Ross house standing strong. Remember:

New ties, motorcycles, cars, mopeds, donuts, apple pies, Mac-ing at lunch, sleeping, choir, practice, 23rd position, tug of war, track meets, cross country, ABBA, CHAM-

WILLIAMS

Okay, we admit, we didn't win all the athletic awards; nor did we make the academic achievement list much longer. But we did win broomball during Carnival and some of us got close (well, I suppose that it depends on how you look at it) to an 80 average.

Gillard and Glass may call us traitors, which I suppose we are, but to be called a traitor is a small price to pay for what we have in Williams house.

We seem to have gotten the pick of the crop when it comes to house-teachers. What without Miss Mathews wonderful car, God only knows what zero zone would have done to us; just remember "Don't slam the door girls!". Our math marks were gratefully saved due to Mrs. Goodwins aid. Miss Nadeau kept to herself except when we needed her most. And now for the lady of the house who survived (barely) the groans, moans and the 'dreadful racket' from our ghetto-blasters drifting through her paper walls. Mrs. Peacock, ya done good, na... ya done great, ... why even super!!!

Thanks Williams Housers and remember; W-I-DOUBLE L-I-A-M-S spells Williams, Williams; it's the kind 'a house ya wanna live in, live in. Where everybody's cool an' groovin', groovin', etc...

Many people have wandered through the great halls of North, even though they need a paint job. This year, after being fed up of getting cardboard collars from the laundry, the house finally received washer and dryers. Since then, we have all turned into housewives. But first we had the problem of putting too much soap in and not enough laundry. Occasionally people make the mistakes of putting dress shirts in with colours, and getting peculiar design shirts. When ever we were hungry, we could depend on our tuck people Keir and Jose. Our scrapman Scott Tinker and slim Greg were quite a contrast as house captains. After Christmas we received the first part of our British invasions, Henry Witcomb, later joined by his fellow Englishman David Bennet. This year, in the winter Carnival, Grier South was guaranteed to clean up in every event. But they were upset in ultimate frisbee with the invincible combination of Pierre Gaudreau, Alberto Rivera, and Greg Stevenson.

Special thanks to all our housemasters, especially to Mrs Gallagher who cooked the wonderful and delicious food. Before we end, we would also like to welcome our new fellow Norther "ACE". All accounting for we and Grier North think we had a very successful year.

GILLARD

T'is the night before leaving and all through the house are the crumbs from our party 'cause we don't have a mouse! Rachelle + Ariana's last exam is doomed Because they live beside the common room. Do-Re-Me-Fa-So-La-Te- Dawn and Andrea live next door. We hear them play piano on the bottom floor. Helga's quiet, Collette we don't know, One from Germany, the other Ohio. Yael + Tasha, the same room as last. Knew with that room they'd catch boys eyes fast. Diane Ross not as quiet as you think, Marilyn Ohana dresses in poster pink. Marttha + Genevieve's men on their walls Are starting to filter out into the halls. Next on the right the 2nd Sims sleeps. As Claudia to the toaster for a pop-tart creeps. Kim + Luna the youngest of us. Kim says "NO" and Luna "You must!" Then up to the second floor I leapt with a spin To hear Alison + Sheila talking of Brok and Baldwin. Susan has laps for coming in late. Tricia, her roommate, in Tuck is GREAT! Lynn we all know loves her music, But sometimes we wonder . . . does it make her head sick? We know Heather's near when we hear "Sista Sista" Michelle, her roommate is more intented - "Mista Mista" Jennifer + Zoe both in heaven One about (?) the other about KEVIN Carol is worried about her roommate She says she's a skitzo + scares her when it is late. Now Missy we know is a ton of fun. We love her more than anyone! Marie Sue is dreaming of her man Skip. Poor Sonia has to watch while her tears drip drip. If you want to learn spanish go see Bertha. She rooms with our bushy blonde Tabitha. Many the actress we all know May one day be on GH, Nancy's favorite show. Sarah's obsessed with that funny looking But Tricia's into men - hers is in "Smithy" Cynthia the prep with her silly laugh Drives everyone crazy when she sings in the bath. Judie is back with Willie it seems And of Micheal Jackson, Jannie dreams. Marga across the hall sits all day in the bath With her rubber-duckie. Down in the Annex we're guarded by Carmi Who give enough laps to suffice the army. Miss Lane + Miss Roy in the sweets in the basement We wonder what they do for entertainment. And finally we come to Mrs Hawketts We hope she will keep us all in her locketts. Good year to all. Hope you had a ball!!

Chapman House

This page is flat.
The photograph is black and white.
The whole thing seems a peaceful sight.
But oh, the turmoil and the fuss
Beyond these simple masks of us.

The daily trek to School and back, With books, along the beaten track, Our minds adjusting as we walk Half-hearing other schoolday talk And juggling rumour and repartee To see how it pertains to me.

And as we run, and work, and squabble Like newborn colts, our legs a-wobble We fling ourselves twixt peace and trouble. And scarcely knowing We pick our independent ways, And go on growing Till finally we get quite tall And Chapman House seems rather small: From drab brick walls and gable roof We find ourselves detached. Aloof. In other halls we dream our dream Along time's puzzled mental stream.

And someday suddenly in mid stride We feel a recollecting tide With quickening pang we dare to look Upon a flat page in a book And see Someone we recognize: Is that really me?

OLD BOY'S CUP, SENATOR HOWARD, LEAGUE CHAMPIONS.

Jr. Football "We don't work We don't study All we want to do is party

That was the general attitude of the players at the beginning of this season. Jr. Football was taken as a nice easy crease. Intramurals worked harder.

Then as time went on, a lot of players caught the fever. We started to take the practices seriously. We worked hard, especially the offence (one entire practice on 'dive right')

Many a time was spent on getting a few rays while the coaches discuss our academic excellence at the staff meetings. But then we got down to business (half hour practice).

We may not look good on the practice field, but something in the air transforme us into an all-pro team in a game. The offence worked well under the command of John "Hut 10" Huggett. The defense was a dream. A bunch of misfits that formed an awsome force tagged "The Disco Defense". It was a great year. Thanks Mr. Marlin and Dr. Coleman.

See'you next season Big Serge

Btm. Football

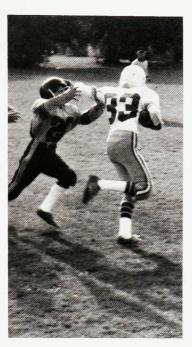

Bantam football made progress from last year, winning 3 out of 8. We had an enjoyable season marked by these memorable events:
- Romo putting his pants on backwards at Mr. Sherriff's house

Rodney and the regular guy look
Big Mac grinning at the team in pain

"Take two ladies, two, only two"

Our season was highlighted by victories against Massey Vanier and Ashbury. In conclusion we would like to extend our sincere gratitude (and apologies) to the coaches, Mr. Romanado, Mr. Sherriffs and Mr. MacDonald.

When thinking back to those beautiful fall days of x country running, memories slip through the mind of;

Running to Galt and arriving minutes before the race!

Skipping around the football field Killing ourselves on Richard loops!

Warming up and stretching nervously before a race

Eating pizza on the way home from Pittsburg

Running nine miles!! (woops went the wrong way!)

Picking apples after a death (desertion)

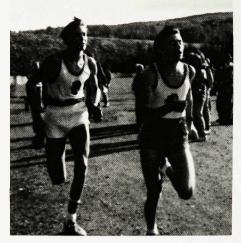

Doing circuits in the gym But let us not forget the time Mr. Perrier ordered himself a sundae after our last race!!!

Forty-nine students worked a total of two hundred and forty-seven games. Without these students the sports' programs would not have been able to function.

The following students were awarded weekends for their exceptional service: Michael McCrory, Joni Scheib, Jane Marten, Julie Bilodeau-London, Robert Fraser, John Hugget and Peter Efthimiakopoulos. All those who timed at least three games were awarded a GTA hat.

Public speaking has found a home in the Chapel on a reasonably regular basis so that we have students ready and willing to join in local contests. James Fryer, Nick Macioge and Margaret Sims spoke at the Optimist's Club here in Lennoxville. John Bunge and Nina Munk competed in the Kiwanis Public Speaking Contest with John winning the boys' section. Robert Cytrynbaum and Patricia Kim spoke at Rotary in Sherbrooke with Patricia winning second place.

James Booth and Nina Munk competed as a team at the annual Independent Schools Tournament in Winnipeg in October.

To give Agora a higher profile in the School, we have instituted an annual Speaker's Dinner which was held on Thursday, May 17th. The Honourable Donald Johnston, Federal Minister of Economic Development and Science and Technology, joined us for an evening of toasts, speeches, and a debate on education. Kurt Johnson, the President, was joined by Agora members James Booth, Brett Halna du Fretay, Ross Hugessen, Ntare Mwine, Nina Munk, Patricia Kim, Peter Elgie, Gillian Phillips and Fred Scalabrini. The evening also was very much enhanced by Caitlin Adamson, David Bennet, John Bunge, Brent Johnson, Dickson Davidson, Samantha Mahfood and Henry Witcomb, who rose to the occasion. Mr. Albert MacDonald has joined Father Malcolm as a staff advisor for this activity.

The Choir of Saint Martin's Chapel, has enjoyed another successful and rewarding year. This year the major choir trip took the form of an exchange with the Choir of Memorial Chapel, Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ontario.

With the two choirs working together at TCS the weekend culminated in Sung Mattins with music that ranged from the standard Stanford settings to the modern Donald Swann "Festive Mattins"

T.C.S. Choir returned to visit on the weekend of Advent Sunday. The weekend of Advent Sunday, B.C.S. hosted TCS Choir, the boys of Christ Church Cathedral Choir, and members of the Youth Choir of the Greater Parish of Coaticook and enjoyed again the workshops offered by Mr. Gerald Wheeler of Christ Church Cathedral.

In the third term, twenty members of our choir attended the Canadian Independent Schools Music Festival in Toronto. The public performance given in Massey Hall showed the audience a mass choir from over twenty private schools across Canada working together.

This year, the choir appointed two head choristers. Julie Cruickshank and Scott Hyndman both joined the choir at the beginning of their B.C.S. careers in Form II and graduate this year from Form VII. We appreciate their cheerful and tireless efforts to keep everything running smoothly. As always, our Choirmother, Mrs. L. Brady takes very good care of us and our vestments and is always there to offer a warm smile and a word of encouragement.

INSCAPE

Inscape is past it's first birthday and putting on weight. It's still 32 pages but our infant literary magazine is thriving and learning to walk without bumping into things. It's voice is getting louder and is making itself heard in places as far away as the Atheletics office. This year it turned blue - nothing to do with it's health, or the obscenity of it's contents, but rather the colour of it's cover. Next year it will be in the hands of Betsey Coleman. I have very much enjoyed being Nanny to such a brilliant and intellectual child - it will go far. Thank you to all those of you who worked on it this year and last year. Keep those poems, stories, photos and drawings coming!

SKIING

COMPETITIVE CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING

Competitive Cross-Country Skiing had an exceptionally outstanding season. Among other things we won the E.T.I.A.C. league plaques for Bantam girls, Junior boys, Junior girls and Senior girls. For the E.T.I.A.C. league championship Banners we won the Overall boys and girls zone championship trophy. Much of our success is due to our enthusiastic and amazing coaches Mr Detchon, Mrs Detchon and Mr Slocomb. They were always there to cheer us on or stand outside in Center Field timing our famous four kilometer loops till their fingers turned blue. Besides skiing in our area, several members of the team spent a weekend in Ottawa to take place in the Montebello Loppet. As in the past a few of us competed in the Canadian Ski Marathon. Although the weather conditions were not favorable we tried our best and Andrew completed his Silver Coureur de Bois.

This crease holds many memories that we will never forget. Right Dickson. "No, Miss Heusson this bottle of Cognac isn't for me, it's for Mr uh . . . uh . . . Mr Detchon!" And our two "superstars" parading around Center Field with tunics! Wade's off-crease slip (all 300 of them). Kim skiing for the Gault boys in the relay and being faster than all of them. Oh well thats what happens when you watch people fall out of windows at parties, it makes you go "very fast".

Till next year . . .

HOCKEY

SENIOR HOCKEY:

An irregular season of ups and downs that was marked with all sort of injuries. (John Martin and Scott Hyndman, your help would have been appreciated).

Hard work is sometimes the difference between winning or losing games; if you don't play as a unit, a team, a group, your hard work passes unnoticed. It is difficult to accept a defeat when you work hard and this is precisely why this season was so frustrating. Sacrifices for the team might have helped; perhaps we will all learn from this experience. The team does come first.

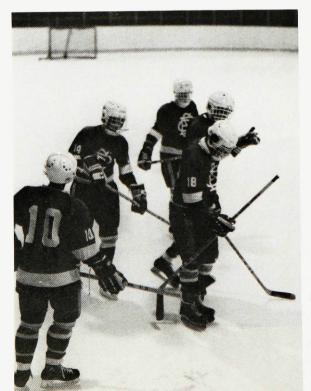

I hope you enjoyed playing for the First Team, I know I did for three years

BANTAM HOCKEY
The team this year was exactly that; at team. We had several veterans that led the team from the start. Along with those veterans, we had some good new students which added life to the team.
The team enjoyed a lot of success this year, placing first in the E.T.I.A.C. league. The highlight of the season was winning our tournament, something that the team has never done.
We would like to express our most sincere thanks to the coaches, without whom we would not have had the same success.

The Captains.

Well, what's there to say? The season had its moments. We regained the long standing tradition of winning the Montreal Tournament. No probs!! How could we forget ball handling, ugh!!! Also those confusing pre-game warmup drills. "What are they doing?" mumbles Mr P. to Julie as she is conveniently getting her ankle taped. Once again Jill misses the chalk talk.

Mr P's players during a game: Alex, please jump, guards please drive and please don't travel. The team found our coach's book on travelling very enlightening. What!! Run in this blizzard, get serious! "Put your hats on and lets go, girls" insists wild man Perrier. Twenty seconds left in our final game and Theo finally scores to end off the season with a win.

Thanks for the patience, Sir. Good luck next year. Your Cap'ts, Julie & Theo.

SQUASH

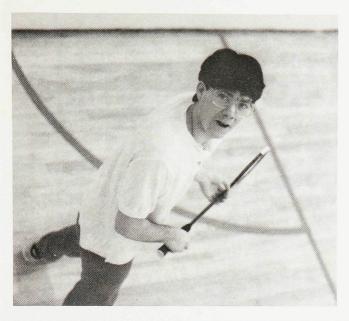

The emphasis this year was on squash. The team, having lost some of it's more playful members from last year, had calmed down and was starting to take things a little more seriously. Many a Sunday afternoon saw players up at the courts practicing for the big match be it ladder or interschool. The coaches too were reorganizing themselves. Mr Bateman increased court time by generously cutting down on meeting time. Mr Peacock took charge of the girls and quickly whipped them into shape while Mr Bateman pushed the boys to new heights of success and sophistication. The new image was summed up nicely in the crease party, totally different, not better not worse but certainly what squash is all about.

Thank you Mr Bateman and Mr Peacock

It all began with the promise of a typical Quebec spring, which amounts to snow, driving winds and slush. Fortunately Mrs. Common set the gruelling pace those first few slogs up the hills and into Johnville. The rest of the pack either backpedalled of remained stationary so as not to pass. Things gradually improved as legs discovered muscles, bodies adjusted to bicycle seats and we all agreed that Stairs was an individual bent on improving his cross-country and barbed wire fence jumping techniques.

Red flags did their fluttering and heads were lowered as we met our share of possessive St. Bernards, over eager puppies, circling falcons and curious heiters.

Ned flags did their fluttering and heads were lowered as we met our share of possessive St. Bernards, over eager puppies, circling falcons and curious heifers.

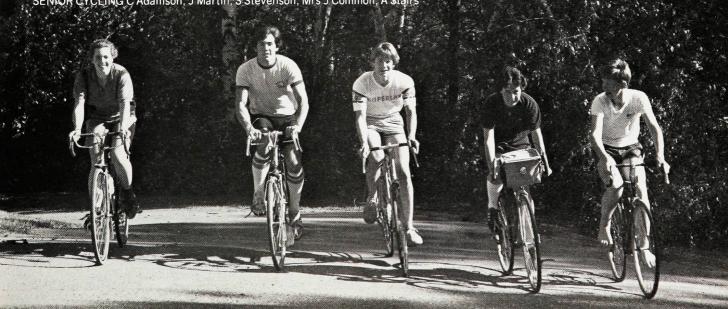

Our away week-end put us to the test. As usual we set out in sleeting rain and chilling winds but it did seem cruel to have our first D.E.M. flat. We separated, grew weary and cold, reunified and then pressed on with the skies darkening at an alarming rate. Our final push along mud and gravel roads brought us to our haven and with humb, wet bodies we slowly eased ourselves off our bikes. No one begged to stay out in their tents and never did a wood stove provide such instant peace of mind. Saturday brought have inclement weather and a secret pact of "NO CYCLING TODAY" was quickly understood. The woods were glorious, food even better and such an inviting pond. Do you think Caitlin really had her eyes closed? Of course no decrepid farm house is complete without a really good midnight scare - enter. Stairs on the pump organ directed by Stevenson and such a welcoming audience!

The tours were at times overwhelming beautiful; Compton apple orchards, Baldwin Mills, Ives Hill and Hatleys of all sorts. That killer hill with such a view (once one had stepped over the body of Mr. Mongrail, and overgone the dizziness) nothing like a good climb.

Journeys homeward were always bitter sweet - not another flat John Edwin! Shall we have another pot of tea? The semester has gone by all too quickly, metal thighs will soon degenerate but the memories are vivid. Caitlin and John are off to the Rockies, remember that for every long haul up there is a glorious slope down. Keep your hands on the landle bars and pedal in safely.

Cycling Buns, "84."

PREFECTS

So it's time to write a Prefect's article, is it  $\dots$  be with you in a second.

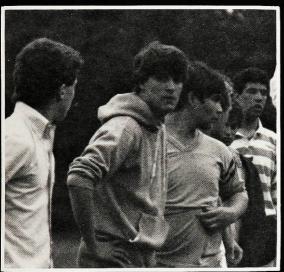

The TV didn't work - neither did the typewriter, the clock, (the chairs with wheels?), the radio (sorry Theo), the pizza fund, flag duty . . . Everything else worked though. I think we can agree on that. 11 misfits assigned to the P-Room made for an interesting but adequate arrangement. I'm afraid there's little else to say. Drop by the Prefect's Room sometime. A picture, be it slightly crooked, is worth a thousand words.

ANNE FRANK

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

The horror became a reality. We all shared a glimpse of what those eight real people had to face. For thirty-two hours, the cast lived on the stage, under conditions similar to those in the Secret Annex. With very little food or heat, no talking or moving around, the insight we gained was unforgettable. From the beginning we decided to produce the play for the real people whose story it is, and to keep Anne's voice alive: "I still believe, in spite of everything, that people are really good at heart." We tried to capture the spirit, compassion and love of those people, and it is something that will remain with us forever.

THE BOYFRIEND

''I know I'm not supposed to say this but, Good Luck! I'll be there tonight watching for you. Knock 'em dead!''

You hurry through the empty gym into the theatre and immediately you are in the middle of a frenzy of noise and clothes and talcum powder.

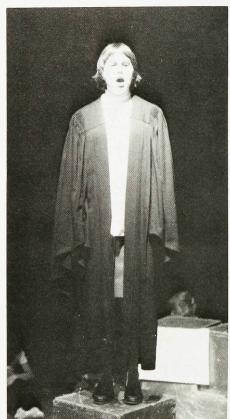

You put on your make-up, faces appearing and disappearing in the mirror and then to the changing room and the smell of hair spray, air freshener and roses.

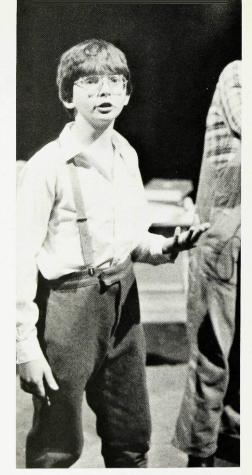

Back to the theatre for encouragement from Angela, the Assistant Producer, last minute advice from Daphne, who put together all those fantastic dances and there's the peacock in full plumage to give us his Director's 'pep-talk'.

Voice warm-up, music, lights down and then suddenly it's summer in Nice in 1923 and Mrs. MacGregor's beautiful costumes, Mr. Tamblyn and his musicians and the great feeling in your feet have transported you and the audience effortlessly through time and space into Sandy Wilson's fantasy.

They laugh and clap and cheer and all the hard work was worth it. There in the fourth row, with her best friend she is. Oh, if only it were for real! But wasn't it?

SEVENTH FORM . . .

CAITLIN ADAMSON (Right) And what a time it was, it was . . . A time of innocence, A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . It must be . . . I have a photograph, Preserve your memories; They're all that's left you," Bookends theme; Simon and Garfunkle

PATRICIA BARR (Far Right) Well, what is it? Sergent or "Captain" maybe, monitor?! Whether in school, at the house (eating pretzels or mints) or on the court playing volleyball, she is always giving her best. Remember: Our freak-out fits! Studying, no . . . relaxing, that's it! Well Patty, good luck next year! luv always, Yvonne Many thanks to CR, YW, AH, and TB for a great year!

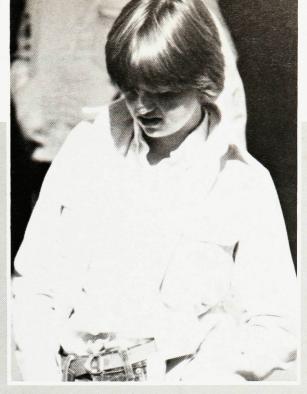

JOHN BECKER (Right) Somehow something's changed around the house. It suddenly seems so calm. Now what are we supposed to do With all of this new found freedom. Thank you M.S. for everything you did for me during the year. A Special thanks goes to Sam whose smile always seemed to brighten up the dullest days. See ya soon in the sunny south or at B.C. Good luck in whatever you do.

Cytrynbaum

THEODORA BRINKMAN Prefect (Far Left) Outgoing and friendly your long BCS career has truly been one of continuous growth in every aspect. It has been a pleasure to know someone who freely gives her utmost effort for the benefit of others. Your loyalty to team, house and school has been exceptional. "New paths open up before our feet now, new roads where there were none. We must make for ourselves a new way of life into which we must enter, knowing the best and not the worst. The road goes err on and on . . . Down from the door where it began . . . Now far ahead the road has gone . . . And I must follow it if I can." - J.R. Tolkien Good luck S.A.P.

ALICE BUTLER (Left) As an ESU student from England I'M having an amazing experience. NSL - good for the soul! Cadets and cadet camp, building a shelter despite CAR'S giggles and "Oh, Sir Jasper!" From lacrosse to field hockey, "getting psyched", "hustling" and eating McDonalds. T.F. runs, roomates (Hope); Mr. C. (carving turkey); Mrs. P. (men keeping me warm at night)! All this, plus Physics A-level. And Now that Physics is over . . . Thank you BCS. AB.

JULIE CRUIKSHANK Prefect (Far Left) Between one and two o'clock Jules can be found in the P. Room watching A.M.C. Between scenes or during commercials she thinks about J.I.N. and of course ROJJJJTKODYN? She's been here for six whole years. Theo, Scotty, Anita, OJ, Never forget your memories: Joni, Nicole. You've come up from standing in N.S.L. to watching people standing in N.S.L. Congrats! Don't forget any of the times in between. Bye bye Jules

RAQUEL DIAZ (Right) She came to Bishop's in VI Form! She thought life here was going to be really hard but she learned to like it. She wanted hot and spicy food but after a while she got used to Canadian food (mmmh)! Her First year went by and she didn't notice. In her Second year you could see Raquel's name written on the board in the mail room. When this happened you didn't have to think who it was. It was her Romeo! She always complained about crease, you could hear: "Oh God! not again." but she always ended up going anyways. Raquel, eres lindisima, te voy a extranar mu . . . Love Bertha

BALDWIN EVANS Prefect (Far Right)

Dear Baldwin, It's hard to believe that after all these years they're actually going to separate us (or should I say try to?). I'm going to miss all the good times we had in the M.B. and in the P. Room. I'm going to miss making our ""cruising sweeps" in Center Hall and playing and the 1st line with Doumy. Heck, I'm even going to miss doing check in with you. I might as well say it, O.J., I'm and playing and the 1st line with Doumy. Heck, I'm even going to miss doing check-in with you. I might as well say it, O.J., I'm going to miss you. I'm going to miss you a lot. I'll never forget the times, old friend, never. All I can say is thanks from the bottom of my heart, it's been real! Yours always, K.J.

FRANCOIS FOURAGE (Right) The "sick" frenchman who started off well by winning the Halloween contest with his sexy leather skirt. He followed his career very strongly by getting ten hours for taaking "photos" in the woods. Francois' quietness and Gel look kept him from being popular with the boys but with the girls he soon became popular for the "pizza" contest in Montreal!!! I wish you good luck and success!! Justo Eiroa

P.S. Favorite activities: Laps, work, and photos in the woods P.S.S.... Saturday nights with Charles in Montreal

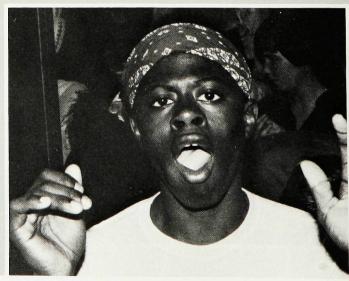

HOPE FRASER (Far Right) Charity, Hopeless, Faith . . . What is your name - Hopefully Hopeful - who did finally make it through one whole crease - and who has steered, guided, propelled, prodded us through. The initiations, provocations, inturiations, glorifications of . . . Number 1 - what else - Williams House. Bossy?? no . . . She just means what she says! We think she likes horses, there are no walls in her room. Only horses and she Will go riding in the snow in a kilt! What a roomate - who else has size 3 feet! A dear friend for someone new to the country and school! Always grateful! A.B.

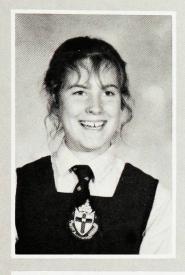

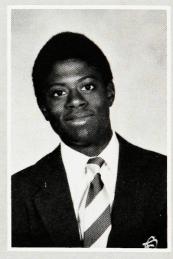

SABINA GATTIKER (Left)
Dear Sabina,
Can you remember the fights I had with . . . because of you?
After six years, I thought I was rid of you. Then you reappeared for six even longer years. This we spent the time better . . (J.S., threats, snow) C.G. didn't last, but we did, even after your Swiss based expedition crossed the world. Later you came back and founded the S.G. Memorial Tuck in the depths of the pit. What I wrote to say is that when you left, you took what they taught you, learnt from experience, but even more you left us each with a part of you. Love from all of us-FOREVER

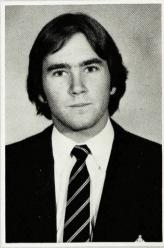

OWEN HINES Prefect (Above) Let's "get a grip" this year has been pretty good for Owen. He's done well in Senior Soccer, Senior Hockey, Track and all other sports around. He has made lots of friends this year, especially new students attracted to his cute facial expressions. Owen continued his pro-funk crusade which could be heard throughout the school. OK, no more "dogfood". All I want to say is good luck and have fun in your future. Rich

ANITA HO (Right) Summing it all up, Anita has: Her laugh (what's that strange sound coming from you?). Her hair (have no fear, Theo's here to get rid of your grey ones!). Her height (hang in there Anita, maybe you'll stretch to 5'4'"!), & her sports ability (no Anita, he won't kick you off Soccer!). For 6 yrs, she has shown that sticking it out through good and bad times can pay off in the end. See ya at Queens Ho-Ho! Love T & P

JOHN HOTTE (Far Right) What a guy (?). You can always find John in a crowd, *he's the one with his head bobbing up and down. From Florida he became a native here for 2 years. Unknown sources . . . How many times a day do you shave?! Hope you find a tunnel for the future! You look good in a bathing suit! He always listens to Lime and the Gap Band. Talking in "Le Language" - fantastic! You were a fantastic roommate! Good luck! Love H.F. & D.S.

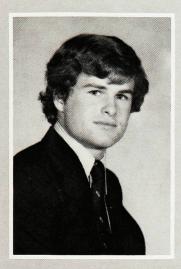

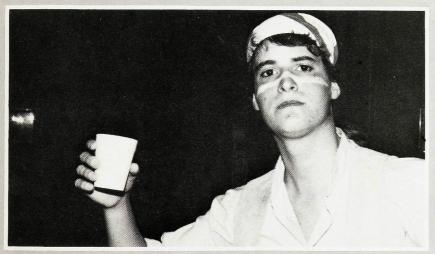

RICHARD HOY, Prefect (Above) Rich made a very strong impression on the new students. Besides scaring them he also took part on the sports field, especially Rugby. Rich also excelled in sports such as Football and Hockey. At school he got an over 80% average term after term. A great help in the house and one of the most honest and reliable people around. We wish you the best of luck at University next year! . . . Owen Hines

When I came,
I came to stay.
Working and playing
I have done.
Now I have to go,,
For I have done what I came to do.

KURT JOHNSON, Head Prefect (Below) Achievements: Head of Debating, Head Prefect, 1st line cruising, and the list goes on. The word Prefect should be changed to perfect in Kurt's case, because he's been a perfect friend to me for 5 yrs, and I'm going to miss him desperately next year! It's hard for me to express how close we've grown and how much I'll miss you Kurt! From singing in the M-B, to those nights of partying and cruising the brooke. Wherever you go in the future remember me and our great friendship. Keep in touch and, . . . I love you bud!!

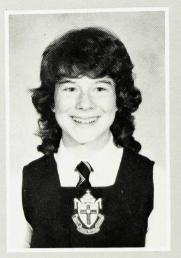

ED JOURNEAUX (Far Left) A gorgeous guy with blond, curly hair & green eyes sitting on his chair against the wall in the Common Room, staring into space, while many things go on about him. Now there's a place to hide from McBates. Don't be afraid to go for what you want in life; We know you can do it! You've proven that to us and the school these past 2 yrs. Keep in touch! Love Theo and Lucy . . . We love the Teddy Bears!!!

NICOLE KANDALAFT (Left) A Toast: To Mom and Dad for being there when I needed someone. To Caitlin for your kindness & encouragement. To Curly and Buzby for all the good times in the ol' Choir pew! To Cathy for putting up with me double personality (Jeckyll & Hyde!) To SAB for your calmness and maturity. To Moo-Moo for always being un p'tit peu fou-fou. And to Hermit: You'll be in my heart always!

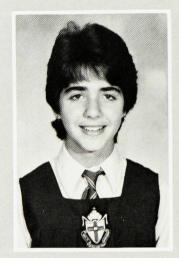

HELEN MACKINNON (Far Right) Going from AGR to BCS was big change, but it's not the only one (28-?) Purple shades from JS&SG helped to dull the colour of your hair! You had us fooled with your quietness, but that changed quickly! A great athlete in fieldhockey & now V-ball, what's next? Remember: F-hockey trips (box lunches & PYT!) and love lives (Ottawa and Lennoxville?)! Good luck next year! Watch out, my feet are under the net! Love ya H.B.M...F.P.

CATHERINE LYON (Right) To friends, amis, and amigos who have known me for my wishful thinking; hyper moods; three "hecks"; double shots at Tamblyn; entertaining bus rides; taste in reading material and giggle sessions in odd places, happy memories of you will always start me smiling! To the laughter, tears, and good times, Cheers! . . . Cath XOX

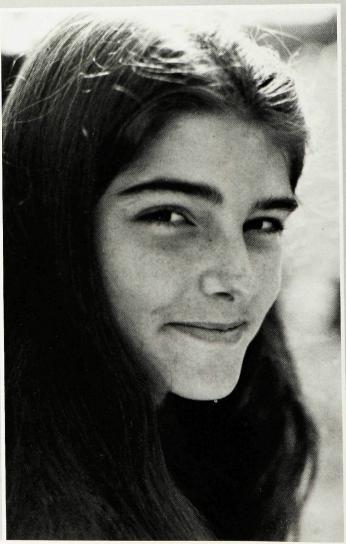

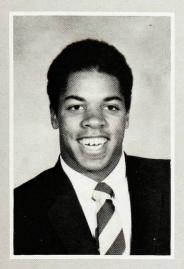

MICHELLE MAHFOOD (Right)
"These are the things in the heart too deep if not for tears most certainly for words" REMEMBER
THE ANNEXE FOREVER What Shers? Nothing! Alrighta. Sorry about the lap Cynthia. Never knew you'd freak. I was helping you with Biology. Lucy, not English. Wake up roomie! Never knew a lap in the snow could be fun. Thanks for providing in times of need Fannie.
Surprise Judes - 18-love! Play it again Sam - but leave the room before you do. Marga "It smells like home" Maybe it did, but you made it feel like home. Dogfood and Chocolate Chip Cookies. Irie!

SAMANTHA MAHFOOD (Right) "Jammin' in the name of Love" . . . BOB . . . REMEMBER: Veche's hugs! Chocolate chip cookies! Privelages! Unlimited Wardrobes! Chouch! The Garbage bags! WORDS! Squish! PREP! TUCK! Early morning jogs! 7:25! Late night heart to hearts! Space cadets! THE ANNEXE! Sherbabes . my roomie! "Excuse me while I step outside"! 5:00am - early morning tea breaks! and . . times spent with the people that make this school what it is - GREAT! BISH BISH LET'S GO YEAH!

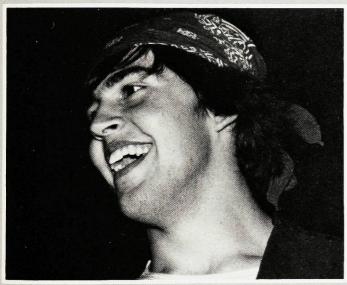

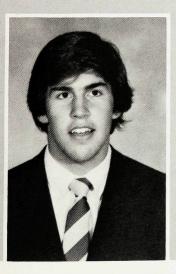

DUMAS MAUGILE Prefect (Far Left) If you can't play under pressure, you can't play at all. Vince Lombardi

MARGA MAUGILE (Left) When you fall into your seat you feel you might be dying As the breath rasps in and out of your burning throat Can't control your lungs because you're so tired half awake with one arm in your coat Well thank God there is someone there to drive you you know you couldn't make it on your own For a while it seems exhaustion has subsided The day is over and the moon is high but your work is predecided. Funny how the hours of freedom seem to fly Well thank God there is someone there to drive you you know you couldn't make it on your own XO - Jannie

John John Edwin Martin
Father he said said he
I want to go to BCS
In 1980 to 83.
John John Edwin's father
John he said said he
Don't ever say I didn't warn you son
They'll learn you your ABC.
John John Edwin Edwin's
Father was right:
They kept him up, and down, and up
Most halfway through the night.
Now John Edwin Martin's years
Are finished as tight as a drum
And certainly certain no-one can say
It hasn't been BLOODY WELL FUN
Thankyou, to all for such a memory

JENNIFER MAY (Right) Four years. Long and short, time has showed me the way to care. I've learnt how to laugh, cry, love, run, play, and just walk quietly with my thoughts. Those friends I made and the people I love, I leave now for the uncertainty of where I'm going and how. I've spent some special moments with very special people. 'The spirit of the horse has been calmed but never tamed or conquered'

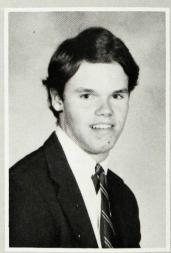

JANET MCINNES (Far Right) Well, Jannie, let's capture all those effects, such as your cultured versatility from Motown to Punk. In this pink polyester world, you create panic amongst the superficially glossy with your cheerful complaints and fantastic common sense! To intellectual iconoclasts, you're the best friend around, cherished in Chester, Tadoussac, and Lennoxville, an irresistable item. Stay as you are, Marsh Arab! We'll all miss you. TRAUTS...

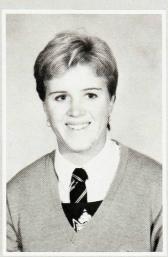

PETER MCMASTER (Right) Bob is my best friend, I am dedicating my grad article to my friend Bobby. He always helped me when I was in trouble, especially the time when I couldn't work the tape machine. Bob always said nice things to me, things that made me happy. I was extremely happy when he called me over the November break on the phone. Your pal, Pete P.S. Couldn't do it without you, Bobby. P.S.S. You're the greatest Bobby SHERILL MCMASTER (Right) Remember: Get a grip, Laughing fits, N.S.L, morning waits, Boots, Tiff, Fishy, sleep swearing, Alrighta, Let's Partyl, Tuck dinners, Peanuts, What? . . . Nothing, garbage bags, Preppy, E.T, "I've got to move down!", $18.50, My sweet roomie, Sam, Snoopy, Cadets, commonroom corner, "Go Petee Go", B-Days, Gum, Apples, and a special thanks to the Annexe, my buddy P.H, and especially my friend, George. Thanks B.C.S. for a special year!

RAQUELLE MYHUL (Above) Was it your VERY short hair that gave you all stares or that cute smile of yours?! Remember: getting "high" on air, our all night conversations through the wall, water fights, and hyper moods! It sure brings back memories to me and I always want to remember them because they've been really special. I'm going to miss you next year! PARTY HARDY, but take care of yourself, you deserve all the best! Love ya Arina.

2nd year: better
Last year: Fantastic!, prefect, Mrs P, Biology attacks with S, Homecoming!, and finally...AIMING FOR QUEENS! (Good luck Nancy!)

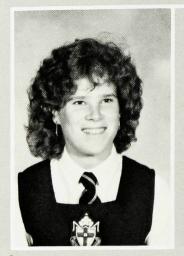

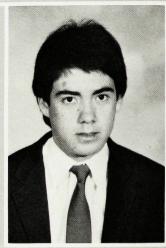

CHRIS RONALD (Far Left) Two years ago we met and since we've been tumbling between the ivories. How do you do itsmell so clean day after day? The monkey stole the train and ran off to Vegas with only a party sandwich and a great impression of an engineer. By night the camp was surrounded apachees everywhere. "Another evening spent being raped and pillaged," we all thought despondently. RAWHIDE disagreed.

CYNTHIA ROSS (Left) "Words don't come easy" F R Davids Remember: . . Early morning jogs . . "The" lap . . "I'm coming · wait" . . . Fieldhockey . . . the killer . . . long convo's on the bus . . NSL . $18.50 . . I'm looking! . . mail room # 306 . peanuts . . garbage bags . . Tea, an eye opener at 5:00 am . . cadets . . Coffee Houses and Tea Dances! . . my "bathroom buddy" who manages (how?!) to get water everywhere . . Oscer . . my "dry" African Violet . . sleep slapping . . Tuck . . our amazing cheerleading . . the spider . . laughing fits . . squish . . "whoops" in Chapel . . "Wog" . . Sneeking down for late night "chats" . . The Annexe with their cheerful smiles and their great support! Sorry I must leave, it's 7:25 AM! Thanks Mum and Dad!

LUCY ROSS (Right) "Wake up it's much too late" . . . Remember: NSL . . . Late nights: 11:30 "She's helping me with Biology!" 12:00 "Now for English!" - Laps in the snow, thanks Mich. Prep: "Let me sleep" or "Whaat?! It's due tomorrow?" Firedrill Lucy! Garbage bags. Preppy nicknames. Laughing in Chapel (CAR)! Teddy Bears (T.B. E.J.); Pepper; Spares; mail! Queen's. Donuts & apples! Talking hands! The Annexe . . . Thanks everyone! "Corkie"

PETER SANCHEZ (Far Right) Equals . . . "The Boys" O.J. and Kurt, Soccer, headed goals, wabbly knees. PARTY! Leheim! "Ann Frank", Mr. Dussel and Mrs. Van Dann -- an affair? 32 hrs hide out. Jerry's nightly Za! Suzie Q . . . Yup crazy and silly. But he has furry ears! Nibble! Fire extinguishers, animalistic squash. Roomate connection. April 16. Sunsets, rubber booties, The Pear, rubs, scrunch hugs. White shoulders. Love, S.C.

JOANNA SCHIEB (Far Right) To Mum and Dad, Who supported me through Six long years. For seeing what others ignored. To both of you, who on the coldest November afternoon, opened my future, though one thought he was closing a Door. To Mr E. through words and Deeds, what is real, what is hollow. To Mr C. for second form and Today in 7th. To Mrs's S. and C. for belief and support. To everyone, especially AH, RHF, & SG for six exciting and WEIRD years together. To the Maj. for his smile through A Tough time. Thanx, Love Joanna And you learn and learn...

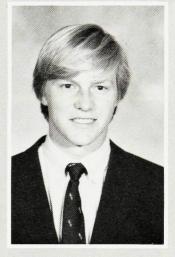

With every goodbye you learn.

MATHEW ULLMANN (Above) Remember: sleeping in a tent; streaking and Southern Comfort in Beaconsfield; Tom "Birds will be Birds" Mac; John "Juan" H. see you in oatmeal; Big Dave; let's go out tonight; long live the fearsome; Brent; Dave; Bye Suzie; XRM Biss have fun - get your shirt dirty once in a while; keep away from those donuts Shmoo; Cheeks, I'll see ya later . . . much! Time for a minute! See ya! Mat; Hay, Mat, close the door! Cheeks.

JUDI WEBSTER (Far Left) 4 years ahead? ugh. N.S.L? Cinnabunny-laps, trouble much? Mahk! T.V. dindin. Thanks Joss, Tom, John 3 years to go...hmm...a party? yeah. rainbow(?) Jules. A geog trip? Toronto? Jannie. John? Richie ah ha. Zinc. Joelly?...oh. Dom. 2 years? Dreaming... (heavy sigh) Activities comm...help Theo? WILL I EVER...? Ray's gang. Groovis roomis? Naw, she died at 5:30. Vimmy. Chris. Last one. Already? P. Room? for us? N.S.L again? 7th form? Us?

YVONNE WESTPHAL Prefect (Left) Yvonne has done a tremendous amount of good for this school. She's done even more for her friend's and we're all very grateful of that. Her accomplishments include: V-Ball, A.T., X-Country, Head of Grad, QM, and Prefect. Thanks a lot for caring! Mucho luv, K.J.

SIXTH FORM . . .

HEATHER ADAMSON (Right) Dreams of the future occupy most of Heather's time. As assistant chief procrastinator she brings to light the futility of school work. Love of laughing and dancing, bring sunshine into her life. Her obsessions include health food, brushing her teeth, the great outdoors, physical activity, individuality and having fun. She has come to conclude that she looks forward to growing up. Hang in there, babe!

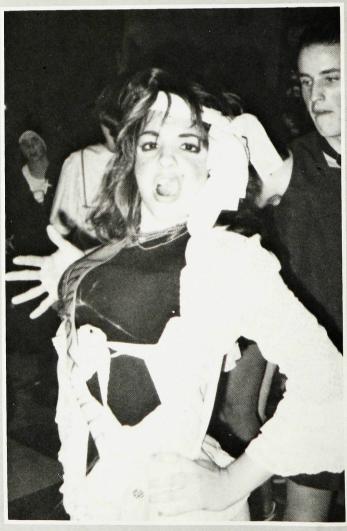

MARIE-SUZANNE ALLARD (Far Right) Dedicated to TS, MPU, C de Cl, and the many, many, others. You're a wonderful person M-S, and don't ever let anyone tell you otherwise. Did we get anything out of all those preps spent in one another's rooms? But of course we did; FRIENDSHIP! so many Memories: falling off closets, Holiday Inns, our various clubs, and white wine. Big Beautiful Brown eyes and a Stunning Smile, what more can I say? Love, Nina. Heads must be kept high, and selfpity is a lethal weapon.

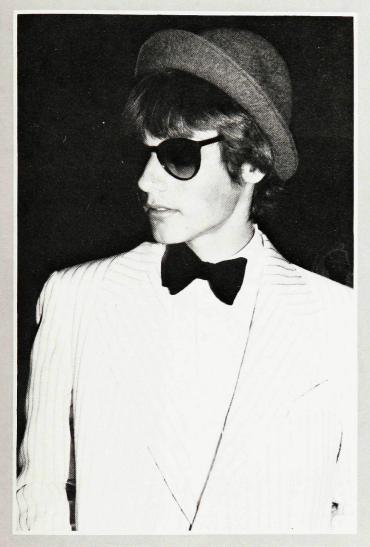

MARK BANDRAUK (Above) Mark came in the middle of last year and basically liked BCS, except for a few things, such as cadets, and common room duty. Mark doesn't like tea but received a tie full of teapots. He was renowned for his soccer skills (too bad he broke his leg). Good luck next year and we wish you the best of luck and success in everything you undertake. B.R. P.S. Oublie nous pas.

Adamson - Booth

MICHELLE BERLANDA (Left) Wicked Lady in Black gets offended when Bahamas and Barbados are confused. Mitch is a Bahama-Mama, an that's that. Richard features prominently, Spence is in the top ten, closely folled by S.D.H. and D.T. "We do it differently back home . . " Mitch is a good it differently back home is a good advice comes from her vast reservoir of knowledge and EXPERIENCE! Take care and go for the best, M.-S.A. (De-C.I.) P.S. Save me a piece of the beach!

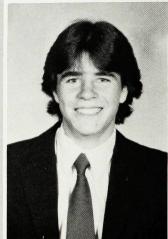

TED BISHOP (Far Left) Betty Tid Bit, Edward, Tedward and finally Ted arrived at B.C.S. in time for 3rd form. Ted was shy and rather quiet, but things soon changed. In 4th form he was on soccer, IHA, and gave his best to junior rugby. During 5th form he ran on X-country, was second liner on IHA, and track in the spring. This year X-country IHA and AT in the spring. He was in the band, carnival committee, and the debating club. Remember sleeping in the car, multilevel parking lots, nights in the music building. Puke.

JAMES BOOTH (Left) When most people think of James Booth, they think of a studious young individual buried in books. James is a hard worker and succeeds outstandingly, but that is just one side to his character. He has incredible self will and determination. From consistent hard work on the playing fields to an overwhelming drive on the X-C ski and running trails, James received colours for Soccer and Rugby as well. Reach for the top. Dick.

JILL BOOTH (Right) Whether we be here, there or nowhere at all, I will always be present. Sooner or later they will all go, but I never will. I love you; your fellow Grunter, Nina.

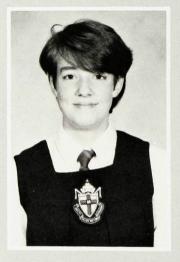

JOHN BUNGE (Far Right) Definitely a successful member of many different aspects of BCS life. From 4th form Colours in Soccer to the only 5th former on Senior Soccer, and getting colours for it. From scoring goals in 6th form on Sr. Soccer to saving goals on Senior Hockey he got the nickname "Bunny". And many women will assure you of his performance on the social front. John's friendship and support have been difficult to match. Scott, Fritz, Dick. Buclolysystem!

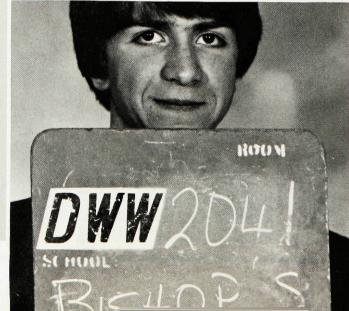

SUSAN CHADWICK (Right) Susan . . . Beautiful smiles, little hellos, the X-C run, way to go! Carnival, "You don't understand me?" O.K., talks, talks and shnowny walks, The Crucible, Mickey and the Pear in the Library. London? . . . England! Terrors, grad, huggability, scoop and willy, clover patch walks and rainy talks, summer months, Adieu! The Police, no probs! Montreal, sigh! Party! Choir, belly aching laughter, Anne's Diary, W.C., pulling through infirmary, infinity nose rubs, Jerry snacks, falling trees, our sunsets and us. "Guess what?" "What?" . . . "Me too!" There are so many things we've been through. And my feelings towards you . . . well, sometimes words just aren't enough. Love, P.S.

CHRISTINE CLARK (Far Right) How strange it seems to have to say good-bye when we only just became friends. But this time next year we will be at the opposite ends of our country, far, far away from any St. Hubert's. We had alot of very strange experiences, I must admit. Mild hysterics at "Terms of Endearment", our individual squash court incidents, bla, bla! and all those letters from strangers! Don't you ever hang up on me again! love H.

Booth - Desormeau

DICKSON DAVIDSON (Above) "Dick the Man" and I became best friends in Grier North. However, when we matured into real men (fifth form), we were separated and he became an unfortunate Smith house thing. Defying all odds, we have remained best friends and handle each others intriguing love lives! Especially summers at Chaffey's Locks and being "accosted" at the Ottawa Ex. Without him, I would not have remained sane. Dick will never have trouble making friends. Thanks. JDB.

STEPHANE DESLAURIERS (Left) There exists a certain breed of person, who has the gift of finding trouble. Not that he looks for it, but he always seems to find it. I don't know how many laps he ran, but somehow, between his hours of forced labour, in which many colourful words in two languages could be heard, n'est-ce pas, Stephane? he became a normal guy. When you know him as well as I do, he's an alright dude. Bonben salut Gorille, Bonne chance quand meme. Un d' te bon chum.

DAVID DOHNEY (Right)

JOHN DOOLING (Far Right) Four long years ago my pint-sized little buddy came to this school with one prime objective in mind . . . Did he come to acheive academic excellence? did he come to win a seat in the prestigious P-Room (legally that is). Maybe he came to grow? No, we'll leave that to his brother. Well! What did he come here for? Some say he came to play hockey . . . I say he came to make friends. I hope I can call myself one of your friends John, because I know you're a softee at heart. I thank you for letting me in. here's to those talks of ours bud, K.J.

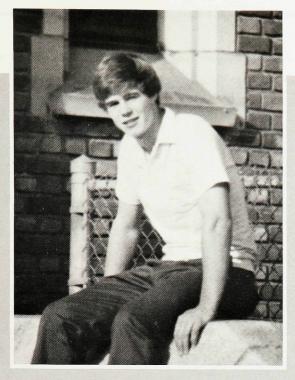

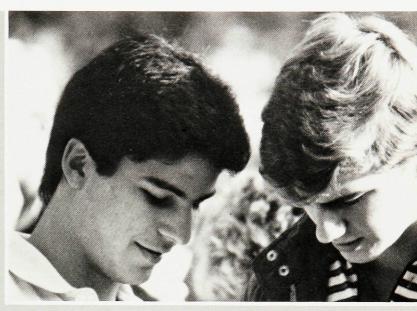

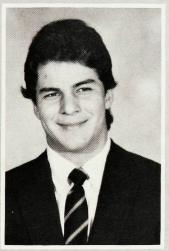

SERGE DUMOULIN (Above) Well Serge, what a hectic 5 years it has been. Between Bantam soccer, Junior Football, Student Librarian, and Choir, you've always found a way to keep your spirits up. How will we ever forget the way you entertained us with your humour. I've heard you want to go into the Air Force? Good luck. Too bad you can't come back to 7th form, you'd have made a heck of a Prefect? Monitor? 7th former? See you next year at Old Boys. F.S.

Doheny - Fraser

JUSTO EIROA (Far Left) Zzzzhhh, SPLATCH! Justo, the savage of the football field. He also made himself present for a once in a life time interview: "I am the greatest thing (malewise) this school has ever seen!" Thank you Justo for showing me day in and day out what a REAL man should be. Thank you also for letting me meet the boy under all this armor. Your roomate, Francois.

I found a shell on shore.
I tried to kick it aside from near,
But it didn't clear,
So I found it queer,
For it was not like others on shore.
I found a shell on shore.
I tried to open it and peer
But it was tight with fear
Opened! Surfaces leer
Yet inside it simple bore
A grain of sand, intricate unlike others on shore.
When I came to BCS I met Melissa and got to know her.
Good luck in everything and stick to your goals. Love, SC.

BERTHA FIGUEROA (Far Left) Arrived in Fifth Form and went directly to Gillard. In her first year she worked hard in crease so she could reach her main goal. This, her Grad year, she was skilled enough to make the Senior Fieldhockey and Senior Basketball teams. Remember to take the ants out of your pants when you dance I wonder how long you and the . . will last. You love Cadets so much that you went for the Duke of Edinborough award. Love always. Raquel

ROBERT FRASER (Left) Robert came to BCS from Westmount, and soon explored a different world. He became known as Fraz. He improved his athletic ability pedalling around on his bicycle with four girls chasing him. If only mathematics were no more difficult than counting miles. His main goal was to improve on his record of three in one week. Remember Fraz, "You don't have to be black to wear the crown." Ethel.

KAREN GALLAGER (Right) Muffy OOPS! Karen of course. What is this muffballs "effect"? Down with modulation. Up with plastic flowers and pizziaville. Are you my mother? Karen the kamera kween. Please! Please save the flying vampire toad. And tip your tam to your plasticine squish racquet. Oatmeal's a nonconformist addition to the melting pot. Your metabolism or your life. Bain drops keep falling on your head. Bye bye, Love, Lorraine

DAVE GOODWIN (Far Right) Dave (known as "God" to some people), appeared at BCS in a zzolt of lightening. He quickly became friends with many people. Besides being a super-jock goalie in soccer, IHA, and an avid rugby player, Dave was also an enthusiastic duck hunter, Quack Quack! Contributes to life at Chapman where he has had a number of roommates from different ethnic backgrounds. Dave I wiggle my fingers in your general direction. Moses.

SUSAN GOTH (Right)

ALAIN GREGOIRE (Far Right) Alien came to BCS in sixth form. Remember the first day we met in French exam? Alien was in many activities; Sr. Soccer, Let's go Purple and Sr. Hockey. He had great talent. Remember Cadets? Arnold gave you a fatigue for chewing gum. Ha, ha! I was cracking up. Saturday night at the Atomic Punk dance. Our magic touch. "OOOEOOEO" I hope you come back next year. your best friend, Julian Silva

Gallagher - Horton

MARY HALLWARD (Far Left) "I'm so psyched!" Mary, you always manages to psyche your way into everything. Roses and carnations at opening night of Anne Frank. We always kept you up half the night telling you about our problems. Thanks Mary. Knocked over vases... From DHC to Lieutenant Hallward, from choir to debating to volleyball; but you always had time for your friends. "Quack, Quack!" (You were quite the debater!) Love P.K. and N.W.

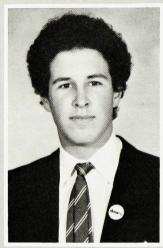

LOUISE HEENAN (Left) HEY, wake up daydreamer!!, or you'll be up at 6:00 am cramming AGAIN!! Remember all those crazy things you've done at BCS? - 32 hour retreat for ANNE FRANK - APPLICATIONS!! - commenting on people when they're standing right behind you! - lit mag (aaahhh) - Vouching not to eat ever again (well maybe next time) - and all those extra things you've done here to make these years more memorable, don't ever forget them! See you in the common room at 6:00? love Mary & Kristina

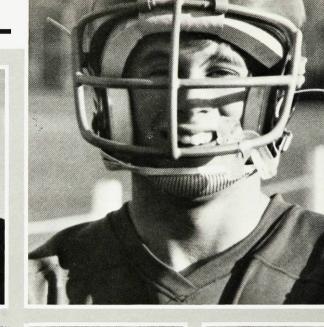

CRAIG F. HORTON (Left) His first year at B.C.S. was in VIth Form. He got involved quickly in school activities, as with creases; he was a member of the Football team, IHA in the winter and he was looking forward to joining the rugby team. You used to make people laugh, and make jokes about everything. You are a blond-haired, blue-eyed air head, but we love you anyway. Love Bertha. Hopefully we'll stick together till ... when ever!

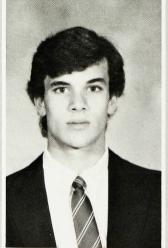

PAUL HUBAND (Right) Last thing I remember, I was running for the door. I had to find the passage back To the place I was before. Relax said the night man We are programed to receive You can check-out anytime you like But you can never leave! - The Eagles

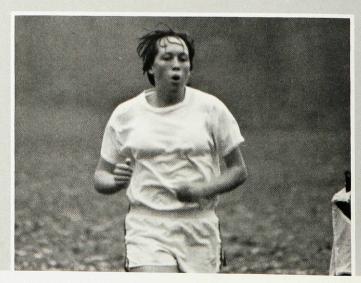

JOHN HUGGETT (Right) John is a person who has had many names since his 2nd Form: Johnny, Huggies, Huggett and he ended up with Harry, which is here for a long time. In the last 3 years, he has been cleaning and repairing his house after LCC, and making up the Gym for Tea-dances, arguing with "mouth", playing wide receiver for Btm Football (no-hands Harry), goaltender for IHA, some academics, Jr Football quarterback (no style), and Sr Rugger wing. Backs and forwards (in Rugby); I don't think we'll ever settle it. I forgot one thing, Nat is around now; so life goes on and on. So John Dorian Harry Huggett, Chow! . . . ZOD

KRISTINA JOHNSTON (Far Right) There will be a day my sweet Kristina, when we won't be thinking the same things, and communication may dwindle to nothing, but what we've shared and experienced together as friends will always remain. Most important . . the love that has grown between you and me . . . XO

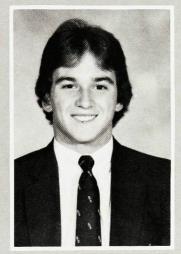

ANDREA JORDE (Left) We'll always remember you as . . . "I only got 6 letters today . . . Turn up the heat, it's freezing. No granola for breakfast? Why did I bother waking up? . . . Where are all the Americans?" Silly, it's been great getting to know you, you're something special and we will never forget you or what good friend you've become. Love Giggles and Spaz

MELISSA KALEF (Far Left) Ever heard of anyone who tapers her pyjamas? Here are the highlights: Parties!, Costumes, famous lampshades. Can you do all 16 dances? Long live bisques to Sherbrooke! Your earrings keep getting longer, keep them above the knee, ok? Some quick advice: Don't ever stop partying out of bounds, chopping up your mother, and don't let the Virgin Prunes get ya! Bob, George & I'll miss ya! Zoe

PATRICIA KIM (Above) "Hi, I'm in 5th Form . . ." that's how it all started out, eh? Dreaming about SOS, Topsiders, Levi's & ARGILES, her THREE necessities! Private investigator Kim, being kidnapped (LS)(AS)(LR), spying in the Cloisters, with glasses and coats. "Tuck" peppermint patty runs downstairs. Tricia, what would BCS life have been like without that first day in the lunch line?! . . . NW

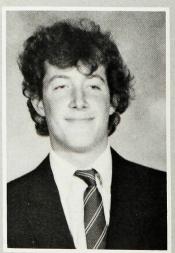

CHARLES LAPLANTE (Right) Certain straits de personnalite: la terreur des courts, "El dash d'la B.M.", et bien entendu sa modestie sans oublier sa qualite pricipale, "El Big Mac" Ce furent deux annees inoubliables et pleines de suprises plutot essouflantes. Il y eu "the Police", "El Party", les tweezerset quoi encore, parce que c'est loin d'etre fini, dans 20 ans, ca va etre l'establishment. Et n'oublie surtout pas, jamais deux sana trois. "tu m' lacheras un wack," S.d.L.

RICHARD LEMIEUX (Right) Richardo (puke) Lemieux, how many Mercedes do you have? I know a colour for each day of the week and one on order for the extra day in leap-year! Remember: your passion for Duran Duran, and Katie; letters from France (B.L.); grasshopper legs; you and Katie meeting up with me by the soccer goal posts (I won't wear white next time) Take care! Nosila

MARC LEMOYNE (Far Right) He came from Montreal to Smith in 5th Form and adjusted well to their ways. This year joining Jr. Football he proved to be an excellent athlete. He earned colors by scoring a Touchdown, and saving the game. He was also known as a true social butterfly. Remember: M.V.P., Ha! Ha! . . . Ha!, A certain letter, "Somewhere over the Rainbow", Grub day in Mrs. B's class; WOW!, a true Jammer! Chow for now . . . Ted

SHEILA LOVE (Left) When you're down in trouble and you need a helping hand and nothing is going right just call out my name and soon I will be there. Even though Sheila will be remembered here for her contribution to Girls Soccer, Track, and of course squash? She'll be remembered by me for her percistant outgoing ways, and her cute smile. We've gone through hard times together but the good times we've had outweigh the bad. Like the spring of '83 and of course VK + OJ party. It's been fun. PS - call me in seven years cause I'll still love ya! Alison + OJ

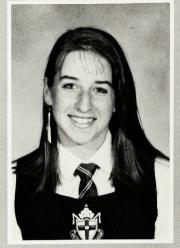

AVERY MACKAY (Far Left) Avery tripped into BCS 3 yrs ago. She started off incredibly well. One of her good points was sports. Her other sport was the guys! What a terrorizer she was in the house! Remember the first day you came into my room, Leslie, Vince & the gang, Miss Hardings last two laps, the big five-oh!, Wea closed now. Well Boo, it's been three incredible years. You're a great friend! . . . Till next year Prunie!!

SONIA MAILHOT (Left) She was quiet to begin with . . . what happened? Sonia got involved in Soccer, running on the field and to the Hospital!? . . . for her ankle. Then on to IHA and Riding. A riot in school but she had a struggle in Bio. & Chem. but in Drama . . . our Kristy! Don't forget your short-sheeting and shaving cream buddies! Love Tabby & Bertha . . . Our problem: Having friends with bb!! Hasta luepo "chiquita banana!"

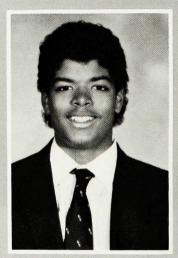

PIERINA MANIFFI (Right) "Purina" I mean, Pierina arrived at BCS this year. Everything was going perfectly until "Heartbreaker" stepped into her life. Your graceful gymnastics will not help you on your chemistry. Anyway Piepe, I mean "The Whop"; it has been great having you as a friend, cheering me up. Hope you will come back next year . . . to try our vaseline joke again!! It was a great year. Ciao, Lala. P.S. "Janis" and Muppets send love. Joe.

GRACE MARCAR (Right) There is No Thing and there is Nothing; evil, darkness, chaos, disorder, etc. AUGH... If you want my ____ and you think I'm ____; Rasta-man vibrations; YAH!... "Ah, getting up at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning, Grace?" NO!! "Hey, that's O.K., 'cause I'M gay anyway!" NOT AGAIN!! "What's that and doing in my Colgate??!!" NOW we're in trouble!! Some Suisse Mocha my savior? Gosh! What a Grace! Lots of love, Nina FRITZ MAUGILE (Far Right) Initially known as the baddest dude to prowl the halls of BCS. Fritz the Cat soon mellowed, except in our slap boxing fights and whenever somebody "borrowed" his bike. His smile and personality made lots of friends and he never neglected anybody. Whether it be "Bubba" on senior football, "Sugar Bear" to the many adoring females, or the steadiest defenseman on senior hockey, Fritz will long be remembered as the greatest all round person. JDB.

Maniffi - Mosely

CRAIG MOFFAT (Left)

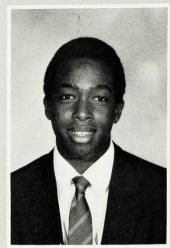

CHRIS MOSELEY (Above) As I approached the door of Smith House I could already hear the carcinogenic din from room nine. What was it this time? I knew as soon as I opened the door that I'd see a real disaster from a Rotting Vegetable. There he was, the ultimate Terminal Preppie. The pseudo-punkrocker drumming up a forest fire. What to do but wait for him to mellow out. Keep Toronto on its toes and come on up to Peterborough. Take it easy, Giff! Dick.

NINA MUNK (Right) I can't imagine what it would be like without you. Without your moods that I know so well. Perhaps too well . . . I may not love them all but in knowing you so well I have come to accept them. Your loyalty as a friend is so true. I'll never forget how you told me that the words that I had spoken flowed into you, and like liquid were absorbed easily, instead of poking at you and getting stuck on the way down. Your words do the same to me, like no others. They will whenever and forever. Love Jill PS - Remember . . .

NTARE MWINE (Far Right) Straight from the heart of Virginia, Ntare (alias Bueno, Zulu, Atari and many other unmentionable ones) came to Lennoxville. Hey, another big city. He came to save the St-Francis and conquer Mont Joie with his Olin Fives. Ntare the debater, the member of grad committee and of activities committee is without a doubt a true member of the BCS high society. The people.

KIM PAWLEY (Right) Endless talking about Andrew! "I don't say eh, eh?". Ottawa, Ottawa, Ottawa . . . can you live without the beatles and Simon & Garfunkle?, "I never eat chocolate" How many stamps have you collected now, letters from A.U.B "Good morning, are you ready yet?" Connections . . . Kim, we won't ever forget your rosy cheeks, cute smile and overall strangeness! See you in Arizona!! Silly and Giggles

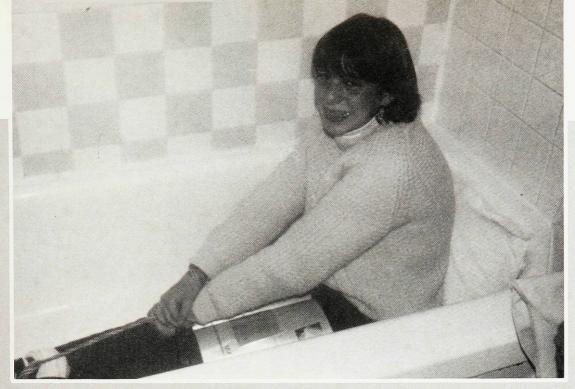

LYNN POLLOCK (Far Right) Born with a silver Volleyball in her mouth, Lynn was off to an interesting start - the burnings of Oddie, snap together bunks, computer assignments at 1:30am, and toilet plunger mascarades. Remember: "We love you . . ?!" & "Left, Right - Squad - Halt . . ." Best of luck always! Friends, Cow & Miss Bunny . . . There are absolutely no fish in New Brunswick - "squid?"

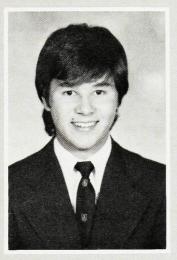

LORRAINE REDPATH (Right) Bainy - Burden of what burdens you, what is the true purpose of quantum mechanics? Ye of the true Newfie spirit have filled out days with uncontrolled hysteria, bordering on, gasp . . . ridiculousness! Fear not the grabens in life, but be ever wary of the epileptic drosophila melanogaster. Unlite, jazz musicians, defend yourself from this aggressive young Segovia. Decadence, dear Bain, the final word is Decadence! Love Betty Brite (KG) PS - the bain (bane?) in Lorraine falls mainly on the Martin.

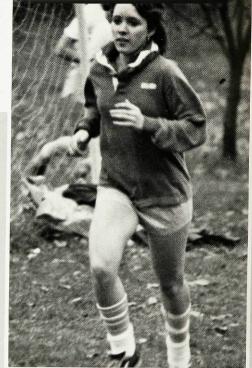

BRUNO ROY (Far Left) He was an awesome sight, that first day in 2nd form. He offered his services to Btm Football and earned the nick-name "Killer." Barely escaping with his life from team sports, he decided to try running, which he will remain known for at BCS (oublie pas Killer, tes bon, mais y'a pas grand cash a faire dans l'athletisme). Bruno was an asset to everything he took part in. Good luck "La Dynamite!" . . . R T

DOUG SAKAMOTO (Left) That's me in the picture. I guess you've figured that out, eh? The Apple has nothing on you, but you sure have something for the Apple. You with the new pink shirt, Cheer up! Only 5 days until the weekend! Saky baby, a phenomenon you surely are, where did you attain your technology? Don't worry, it sets us straight. Don' fret, you're a super guy without a cause, just wait until you find a cause. Lorraine

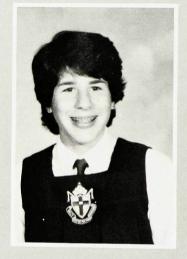

VIVIAN SALAMONOVITZ (Left) We began a new life together Memories we will cherish forever The days we spent both in joy and anguish May dull in our minds but never be vanquished We come from far away places Leaving behind many loved faces You've brightened the halls with your dazzling smile And caused many to grin with your skating rink style So much has happened in this short space of time Yet so little can be said in this short sincere rhyme. Hugs and Kisses and ALL MY LOVE Sam PS-Remember all the INTERESTING coffee houses WK

LYNNE SAYKALY (Right) There once was a girl named Lynne, and she didn't like people who burst into her room on the first day of school, but Lynne later did like to laugh at Mr. Lloyd's eyeball fits, and run around the house with Leslie and Vince the Vi. . . well, Lynne was a little bit of a devil, or so Mrs. P. thought, but she soon straightened things out by becoming a Sunday school teacher, and showing the kids how the oven was a perfect hiding place. Lynne was very good at showing up at 7:20 a.m. with eyes half open and her dumb towel to say she's almost ready, but she always made it. That's a lot of good times. Let's keep it going. Love, Avery.

FRED SCALABRINI (Far Right) "I'm too short" Thats all I've heard from Fred. Here are some things to remember him by: Soccer, Rugby, Squash and Skiing. Always harassing Mr. Tamblyn. Knight in shining armour. Band trip in a tuba case. Asleep during chem., eco., and physics. Buying 300 BCS pens in one year. What does the future hold for Fred? Will he grow taller???? These questions will be answered next year. Till then, lots of luck, MK.

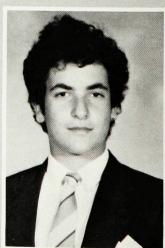

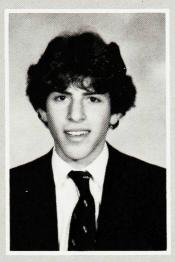

OSNAT SHEMESH (Right) Oz, Big Oz, Ozzie and sometimes Osnat: From the first day we met I knew you were different -- with your Hebrew music and your unique way of expressing yourself. Memories of ants in your toothpaste, 4:00 a.m. wake ups, your common phrase "I'm under pressure" and "I have so much work". Young guns having some fun. Red red wine. Do you think I'm sexy? How 'Bout some reggae? Hey people, we're off to see the Wizard of Oz. Shalom, Gracie

SEAN SHERMAN (Far Right) Who else but "Shermbaby" would carry a portable word processor to do prep with while everyone else is asleep? Besides being a stud on Jr. Football, scum line, and send-ins, Sherm is a very enthusiastic person. As for girls, I'm sorry buckly this article can only be 100 words long! who else would wear his formal every cadet day instead of greens because nothing fit? I haven't known you for long, but your future will be promising! Serge

ALLISON SIMMS (Far Left)

MIKE SINYOR (Left) Hi Jack. Your race has just begun; are you paranoid yet? All that dancing — you're pretty good at that. If you keep eating that doah you'll end up living on the Nile, and all you'll need is your blanket (my blanket!). Then as you rise at 5:00 and walk around you'll say Cournoyer you got a lap! Bird, where is Bird? I know I taught you, you finished second. Stick in there Mac. Dev. You python you.

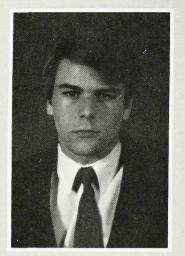

JOANNE SOULSBY (Far Left) Dear Joanna, oops! sorry, I forgot, Dear Joanne, Well your two year sentence is almost over. You finally made parole. No one ever said that private school would be a summer camp. But on the other hand no one ever warned you about a prison camp. Although it was hard, I think the punishment was worth all of the new friends you've made. See ya in the free world. Love, Your Hubbie.

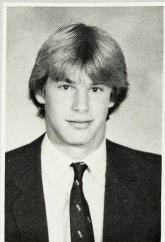

ANDREW STAIRS (Left) From day 1 in 2nd Form, Andrew established the superiority of farmers over other humans. Farmer power was in as far he was concerned. This superiority complex got him into trouble on occasion with roommates, housemasters and art teachers. After his wild 2nd and 3rd form years Stairs got into the academics and X-C skiing. From Grier South to Chapman, where in 5th form he lived with two very different and much loved roommates. In 6th form, Stairs is still going strong. Farmers never falter. Salut mon pep. God.

DAVID STANKITIS (Right) The friendly giant, but not on the Football field, # 62 defensive-end D. Stankitis known as Stan the Man. Colors on Sr Football '83, a Jr Hockey star, and Rugby eight man. His social life didn't suffer either, known to his fans as "Hunk" or "Stud". Well millionaire buddy, big guy or, should I say Mr. Soundeffect, you've done well! "I'm glad you're not leaving so soon Mr. Frank." . . . D.T.

SCOTT STEVENSON (Far Right) This intelligent, blonde, blue-eyed heartthrob sets girls aflame just by walking near them and he showed no mercy! Only a very select few managed to interest him which sent others away in agony! Also an athlete, Stud (Scott), was the best defenceman on Sr Hockey, and starring as "Supersub" on Sr Soccer, once scoring two goals in ten minutes! You're a great friend, keep in touch! See you on Les Canadiens! J.D.B.

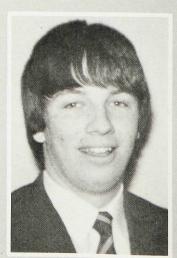

CRAIG STEVENS (Right) Arriving a month late helped Craig attract a certain young lady's attention, as a matter of fact a lot of young ladies' attention but once they got to know him . . . He tried to get out of laps by using his new student excuse. "But I'm new and I don't know." Craig became part of BCS very fast through Jr. Football, Hockey and guitar. By the way we didn't enjoy doing your laundry! Love Tabby, Sonia + Bertha MARK TINKER (Far Right) Prowling into BCS, "Tink the Mink" entered 3rd form. He's now known as "PHP" to a certain influential member of the establishment (Potential Head Prefect)! His accomplishments include Sr Football quarterback, Sr Hockey top scorer, & captain of Jr Rugby; all while keeping a 75+ average and a fabled relationship with TMTST! We know "Tex" will continue to succeed in all his future endeavours. Thanks! J.D.B.

RICO TOFFOLI (Right) Choir, band, rumour, track, IHA, Roco, J' suis beau, J' suis fort etc..., Kid a Jerry, laid, soccer, Grier, computer freak, pizza, french, le gros, movies. Since Rico came to B.C.S. in 2nd form, I was impressed by his modesty and by the way he has mastered Quebec's Official Language. Hope you come back next year. If you don't, we wish you the best of luck mais n'oublie pas le French Connection. B.R.

Stankitis - Wechselberger

DARREN TURNER (Above) Going from girlfriends and problems with them, his first priority at BCS was girls. Second in line came improving on academics, 1st team Hockey and Soccer. Remember: Dreaming about life outside of BCS, and devising schemes on how to get rich and famous. A taste of life outside BCS, and being rich for a few hours in Mtl. It's been a good time "almost anything buddy" and more next year! . . . Stan

CIEL TURZANSKI (Left) Hey girl! We'll always remember you and your men. Micheal Jackson... Screaming in the library... I love the U.S.A!... The Dallas Cowboys are better than the Denver Broncos (no dice!)! What are we doing in Canada? Pizza parties, coffee crisps & pop-tarts!! We won't forget your cute laugh and the Coloradan who never skied. Love Spaz and Silly

ISABEL VIGNEAULT (Far Left)

HEIDI WECHSELBERGER (Left) It's been 5 long years at Bish and I guess it's really over now. Years of memories, laughs and CHANGES. Remember brunches at Hovey, snow-jobs, lust attacks, choir prep and the summer. Right from Btm B-Ball to Sr you gave your best. After 4 years in Glass it was quite a change to go to Williams but you survived as a house captain. Through all you did you still found time to be yourself. It was, IMPULSE. Well, mouse, graduation is here, best of luck next year and remember life's not the same without you. Love Jingo

Welch-Yanovsky

TABITHA WELCH (Above) Taaabitha was known for her cute, innocent voice, don't let that fool you! She continued her field hockey career, and became an active member of the IHA crease, and took part in the choir. Her greatest ambition is to become a designer but she'll probably end up drawing Snoopy comics. Remember short-sheeting everybody's beds? Good luck and stay in touch. Love Sonia and Bertha Remember PM, CS, JH of course you do!

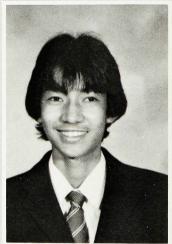

NANCY WELSFORD (Right) Nancy's a pretty great friend of mine. When I first met her I wasn't sure what her last name was, 'cause she spoke so quietly. But quiet she isn't! No, no... Nancy seems to have a penchant for men à la Scorpio! She also has a bit of a "French" side, an "English" side, and a "sly" side! She's a great listener and confider (I won't get too sappy). So take care future roomie, Love Patricia. Remember to chew those salads 32 times!!

JOHAN WIBISONO (Far Right) Well, Johan, you've been around BCS for three months now. You were always there when I was having trouble with physics, computer and functions. Finding you was never a problem. You were either in the computer room or at an arcade in Sherbrooke. One day I'll come to visit you in Indonesia and take a spin in your Porsche, Lamborghini, Ferrari and Lotus Esprit turbo. Your good friend. Mike. P.S. May I borrow your calculator?

Zoe Yanovsky (Right) Keep snapping your fingers. Sing Boy George. You woke up Gillard to the Dead Kennedys. Nazi Punks . . . . % &!!%. Too bad you slept through the earthquake (nothing could have woken you up after those parties, huh?) Always remember the essentials . . . costumes, parties etc. I only have one bit of advice for you and that is to tie down your plant already. I don't want to be a goy, so I won't eat ham, OY! I'm gonna miss ya, love M.K.

In-house production of T1 and T2 returns at your fingertips.

Yes, produce your income tax returns more rapidly and more efficiently than ever before. Informatrix 2000, the Canadian leader in the field of computerized processing of income tax returns, is offering you, in addition to the regular batch processing service, a brand new way of producing returns.

Revenue Canada Revenu Canada

Let us install an IBM Personal Computer® in your office together with Informatrix software. This combination will give you direct access to the most sophisticated, state-of-the-art planning and production tools presently available in the field of taxation. Just enter your client's data by means of the keyboard, review the results on the screen and request the printing of the final return. That's production at your fingertips!

Informatrix programs are available to process income tax returns

- for individuals
- for corporations
- for American expatriates resident in Canada (1040).

On line with the future

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865)

"When everything is coming your way, you are probably in the wrong lane."

Isn't this worth saving?

There are fewer Atlantic salmon in the world now than there have ever been. Through conservation, fisheries management, education, and research, we want to change that. With your support, we can.
